

Red Lion Controls® Remote Access offering is end of life. The remote access product portfolio is now available directly through MB connect line.

Following Red Lion Controls acquisition by HMS Networks, the remote access products are being separated from the Red Lion product portfolio. The remote access products are reverting to the MB connect line brand and may be purchased directly from MB connect line. MB connect line is an HMS company and is committed to a seamless transition for partners and users from the Red Lion branded devices and service to the MBConnectLine branded solutions. Users of the current rlConnect24 public portal will see no disruption of service; the cloud will be rebranded to MBConnectLine.

Ordering from MB connect line is easy for customers. If a customer was an MB connect line partner previously, the account will be reinstated by the MB connect line team via an email request to sales@mbconnectline.com. For new partners interested in purchasing remote access solutions, please email sales@mbconnectline.com with the following information: official company name and address, contact person(s) name, title, email address, and telephone number. An MB connect line customer service representative will contact new partners with account details. Current discounts will be honored by MB connect line, subject to terms and conditions.

Red Lion (RL) to MB connect line (MBCL) Part Number Conversion:
